

Flex your gardening muscles at San Diego Botanic Garden.

Volunteer in Garden Beautification!

Dig in and make a difference you can see. It's fun, it's for everyone who enjoys the outdoors, and it's easier now than ever before.

■ Who?

Any interested volunteer can come work with our docents and staff. You do not need to be a docent, or a member of a team. Volunteers must, however, be at least 14 or older.

■ What?

Sprucing up various highly visible areas of the gardens that need your help.

■ When?

Every Wednesday and Saturday morning, from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Additional opportunities are also available on individually scheduled dates.

■ Where?

In the Bamboo Garden, CA Natives Garden, Hamilton Children's Garden, Herb Garden, Mediterranean Garden, Seeds of Wonder, Topiaries, Under Sea Garden, and many more.

■ Why?

You can learn more about a vast selection of plants while helping our staff keep SDBG beautiful, healthy and inviting.

■ How?

Complete a Volunteer Application Form in the office before gardening. Come to one of the dates and times mentioned here and check in at the Admissions Booth for the exact locations.

Wear a hat and sun block, and bring gloves, weeders and pruners if you have them. We'll provide the rest.
